Coway (021240)

Fading competition concerns at home and outstanding performance abroad

- Total rental accounts up 5% YoY led by strength in Korea and Malaysia
- Global rental sales to grow 8% over next two years
- Time to buy given 3.9% dividend yield and valuations at bottom of historic band

Facts: In line with consensus; Better in details

Coway's 1Q18 results were in line with the consensus with sales up 6% YoY to W647.8bn and OP up 9% YoY to W131.3bn (OPM 20.3%, up 0.5%p YoY). By division, domestic rental sales rose 1% YoY and mattress financial leasing jumped 49% YoY. Non-rental sales (lump-sum, cosmetics, exports, etc.) shrank 12% YoY but overall revenue grew as the combined sales at overseas and core subsidiaries increased 48% YoY. Robust sales and significant account additions in Malaysia and Korea were particularly impressive. Lump-sum sales and China-bound exports were sluggish but this will only be temporary. Weak lump-sum sales were due to revamped water softener selling practices. Exports to China should pick up in 2H18 when inventory is cleared at a major customer.

Pros & cons: Confirmed overseas expandability; Domestic competition concerns fading

Growth is upbeat at the overseas business. Coway secured 708,000 accounts in Malaysia, a QoQ net increase of 55,000. Malaysia accounted for 11% of all accounts and when also combining the US and Thailand, overseas accounts reach 836,000, making up 13% of the total. Coway commands a solid no. 1 position in Malaysia's water purifier market, taking 35-40% market share for new products. Given that water purifier penetration in the country is only ~20%, we expect the market to achieve lofty growth. We recommend closely monitoring 1) air purifier ODM exports to China, 2) broader selling channels in the US via Amazon, 3) rental operation expansion in Thailand and 4) the potential entry to China's water purifier market over the mid to long-term. And in terms of domestic rental accounts, net additions reached 62,000, the most in two years. Of note, new rental sales are up a brisk 8% YoY. In addition to water purifiers entering the peak-demand season from 2Q18, a product lineup reinforced by the effects of new models and the release of a clothing care system should help further accelerate sales growth.

Action: Concerns about domestic operations to wind down; Focus on overseas expansion and dividend appeal

Coway should end a stagnant period with total overseas accounts up 6% YoY and ARPU up 2% YoY. The dividend yield is estimated at 3.9% while shares trade at 16x 12MF PE, touching the lower end of the three-year band. We believe the growth outlook is upbeat for environmental home appliances such as water and air purifiers across not only Korea but all Asian countries where air quality and water pollution are serious concerns. Given overseas expansion, domestic recovery and attractive dividend yield, we maintain BUY.
