ESG consensus

4Q23 OP to fall short of consensus at KRW164.6bn (+0.6% YoY)

We now expect Coway to post operating profit of KRW164.6bn (+0.6% YoY) on sales of KRW1.02tr (+3.7% YoY) for 4Q23, falling short of market consensus by 5% due to stiffening competition in Malaysia and rising costs at home.

Standalone sales should have expanded by 4% YoY on growth in domestic rental contract sales volume and net increase in accounts. Impact of ownership transfers from the expiration of five-year rental contracts was likely offset by new customer additions through the launch of innovative products. Standalone operating profit is expected to have increased by a smaller extent at 3% YoY, due to larger spending on BEREX marketing and R&D efforts. In Malaysia, operating profit likely dipped from the slowdown in consumption, increase in competition, and hike in COGS ratio for air purifier filters. In the US, operating profit should have continued on a steady growth path with sales rising by 7% YoY on brisk demand from retail channels. In Thailand, top-line growth was likely steep at around 25% YoY.

Growth slowing down in Malaysia but accelerating in Thailand

After eight strong years of expansion, the pace of growth in Malaysia has now slowed down. The market penetration rate of water purifiers in the country is estimated in the low-60% range, with main customers in income brackets between the top 20% and median 40% levels. For future growth, Coway will need to either expand the client base for its water purifiers, or add new home care products (air conditioners, massage chairs, etc.). The company's market share, currently on an uptrend with the launch of lowerend models, should see a boost from new home care product releases.

In Thailand, we expect Coway to repeat the success seen in Malaysia. Due to the country's lagging financial infrastructure, the Thai unit had been slow to grow since its foundation in 2003. However, growth has recently picked up following improvements in financial infrastructure and expansion of sales force. The total number of rental accounts in Thailand reached 191,000 (+50.6% YoY) in 3Q23 and likely continued on a solid uptrend in 4Q23.

Focus on solid earnings than largest shareholder's stake sale plans

We continue to recommend BUY on Coway. Uncertainties have grown with the largest shareholder considering a stake sale since 2023. However, we point out that the company's attractive business model guarantees steady cash flows regardless of slowing consumption and possible change in largest shareholder. Overseas units, a key driver behind Coway's enterprise value, are forecast to account for 37% of company-wide sales in 2024. Renewed consumer interest in hygiene further adds to the positives for Coway.
